

Free Business Boost Workshop for PhD Students

Research Impact through Business Engagement

This friendly and supportive one day workshop will provide you with the opportunity to:

- learn from researchers' experience of working with business
- understand how to respond to the needs of business and society
- maximise the impact of your research

Lessons learnt from success in academic research collaborations with business

The workshop will be led by speakers with substantial academic research and business experience and will also include breakout sessions and opportunities for one-to-one advice and networking.

Tuesday 11 December 2018

10.30am – 4.00pm (refreshments and lunch included)

Etc Venues, Liverpool Street (Norton Folgate), London

Book your place online at bookwhen.com/iaa-businessboost

(40 places available)

The event is fully-funded by ESRC, so is free of charge to PhD students of universities within the SeNSS-DTP consortium. Travel bursaries may be available, contact m.copley@uea.ac.uk for details.