

An aerial photograph of a dense, lush green forest, likely a coniferous woodland, serving as the background for the text.

ACADEMIC WRITING SUPPORT

Dr Vicky Penn

Vicky.Penn@rhul.ac.uk

1-1
TUTORIALS

Individual advice on areas of academic writing development such as:

Argument building

Structure

Methodologies/
Methods section

Literature reviews

Planning

Editing/revising

WRITING WORKSHOPS

Workshops focusing on aspects of academic writing:

Writing the Literature Review

Writing Strong Methodologies

Introduction to Academic Writing

Restarting Writing

Approaching the Thesis

Revising and Editing the Thesis

Sign up on the RDP Moodle Page

VIRTUAL WRITING

Get Stuff Done: A Weekly Virtual Writing Retreat

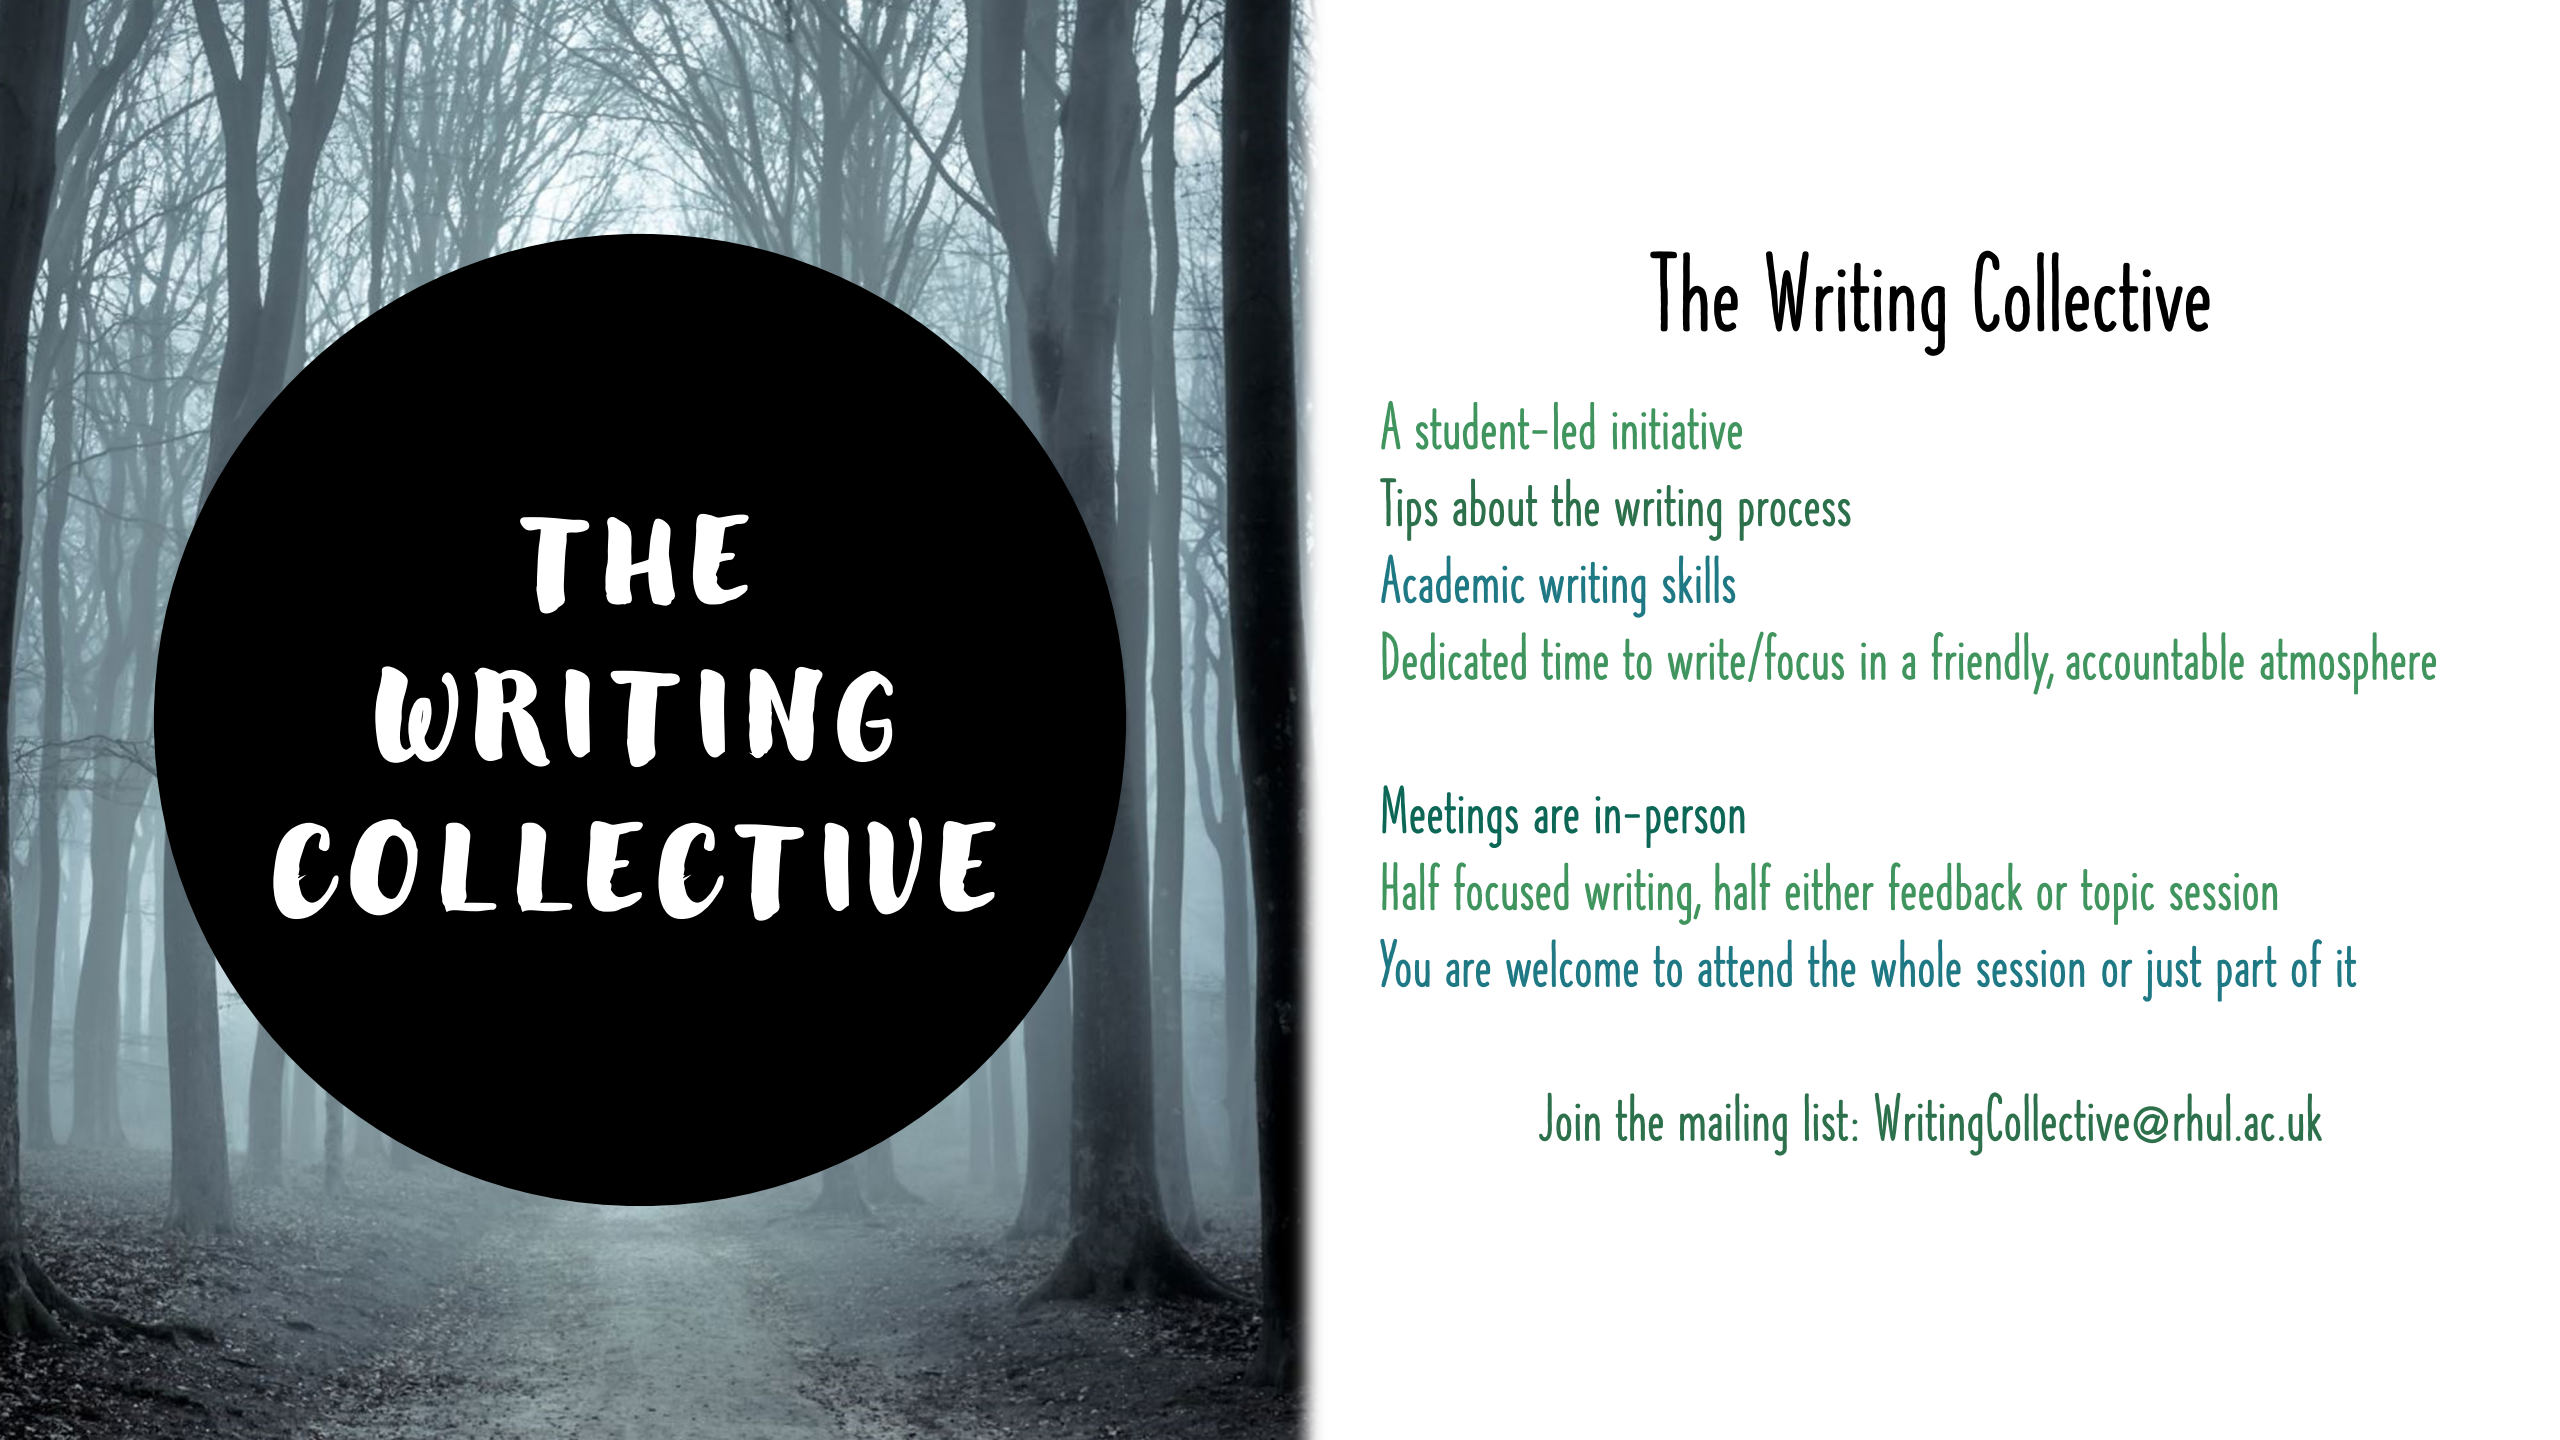

A friendly, constructive environment in which to meet like-minded peers, discuss writing or motivational challenges, and work in a focused way without distractions.

10:00-12:00 every Wednesday on Teams.

Link via email, on RDP Academic Writing Support page, and in PGR Newsletter.

Writing Buddies Teams Channel

A space to find someone to write with in an accountable, friendly environment at a time that suits you, providing motivation and support through the thesis-writing process.

THE WRITING COLLECTIVE

The Writing Collective

A student-led initiative

Tips about the writing process

Academic writing skills

Dedicated time to write/focus in a friendly, accountable atmosphere

Meetings are in-person

Half focused writing, half either feedback or topic session

You are welcome to attend the whole session or just part of it

Join the mailing list: WritingCollective@rhul.ac.uk

ANY QUESTIONS?

Dr Vicky Penn

Vicky.Penn@rhul.ac.uk