

PETER MARSH PRIZE

Mr and Mrs J Marsh have endowed this prize in memory of their son Peter Marsh, who was a student at Royal Holloway College from 1979 to 1981. The prize may be awarded each year to an undergraduate student of the College, who will normally be in the second year of his/her course of study, and will take the form of a bursary to assist with a field project in ecology or conservation.

Conditions of the Award:

1. The Award is given to an undergraduate student of the College, who will normally be in the second year of his/her course of study, to assist with a field project in ecology or conservation.
2. The value of the prize will vary depending on the project and the amount available in each year.
3. Applications will be considered by The Travel Awards and College Prizes Allocation Panel who will consult the Head of the School of Biological Sciences before making an award.
4. Recipients of the Prize are required to submit a brief report of the activities for which they have utilised the Award. This report will be published on the Royal Holloway Travel Awards and College Prizes webpage.
