

GEOGRAPHY POSTGRADUATE PhD INDUCTION WEEK TIMETABLE 2018

Enrolment Link: <https://intranet.royalholloway.ac.uk/students/welcome-week/enrol/home.aspx>

	09:00	10:00	11:00	12:00	13:00	14:00	15:00	16:00	17:00	18:00
Tues 25 Sept		PGR & PGT Registration Tea & Coffee Foyer 10:00-10:30	Welcome to Postgraduate Life in the Department: Prof Ian Candy, Director of Graduate Studies (QB170), and a Postgraduate Welcome by Prof. Phil Crang, Head of Geography Department (QB170)	Careers Emma Baker 11.30 CeDAS Katie Shaw 11.50 11:30 - 12:15 (QB170)	Prof Ian Candy PGR Life at RHUL 12:15 - 13:00 (QB170)	Tour of Department by current PGs 13:00 - 13:30	Lunch Break 13.30 - 14.30	H & S Facilities & Resources Briefing - Claire Mayers (QB170) 14.30 - 15.00	Introduction to the Office Environment Liz Hamilton (QB162) 15:00- 15:30	Introduction to Dept. Computing Facilities Ray Aung (QB146) 15:30-16:00	Break 16.00 - 17.00	Research Group Receptions GDSJ for all Political & Development PGs including S & M (QB170) CQR for all Quaternary PGs (QB136) SCHG for all Social, & Historical Cultural PGs (QB171)	Drinks in local hostelry for those who wish
Wed 26 Sept	Postgraduate Annual Forum (QBLT) (Arranged by Laura Shipp & Alice Carter-Champion) Including Department Lunch (QB171)
	Tea & Coffee Foyer Arrival 10:30	Session 1: QBLT - 11:00-11:10 Introduction – Prof Ian Candy - Director of Graduate Studies 11:10-11:30 – Katie Young, “Oh, Master, what do you want here? Master, this place is not for you”: Mobilities Inside and Outside Ghana’s Postcolonial Cinema Halls 11:30-11:50 – Joanna Tindall, Lacustrine carbonate oxygen isotopes as tracers of past climate change in NW Europe. 11:50-12:10 – Jessica Fisher, How perceptions of urban nature in the tropics affect subjective wellbeing 12:10-12:30 – Rory Hopcraft, Pirates, polar bears, programs and portholes.			Lunch (QB171) 12:30-13:30	Session 2: QBLT 13:30-13:50 – Chris Francis, Investigating the spatial heterogeneity of abrupt cooling events during the Lateglacial Interstadial in Britain and Ireland using chironomids and oxygen isotopes. 13:50-14:10 – Flora Parrot, Invisible fish. 14:10-14:30 – David Arnold, Insights on Mediterranean aridity during the Late Pleistocene using mammalian tooth crown height. 14:30-14:50 – Matthew Simmons, ‘Games for change’: the politics behind digital gaming development.			Session 3: QBLT 15:10-15:30 – Will Jamieson, Granular Geography: Extraction, Commodification, Reclamation 15:30-15:50 – Joshua Pike, Reconstructing the last deglaciation of central Patagonia using annually-laminated sediments. 15:50-16:10 – Ed Brookes, Excavating gentrification: the contemporary geographies of Robin Hood Gardens. 16:10-16:30 – Andreas, Haggman, PhDs are not all fun and games.			Postgraduate Reception Party 17:30 All current and new pg students invited to the Happy Man.
Thurs 27 Sept	9.00 - 10.00 - Introduction to Library Resources for PG Study - Emma Burnett - (Training Room, 1st Floor, Emily Wilding Davison Library)	Photographs (Library @ Geography QB174) 10:00-12:00			Research Briefings: Quaternary - Prof Danielle Schreve (QB136) 13:00-14:30 GDSJ and SCHG to be arranged later in the term			Open Door for Any Questions Prof Ian Candy (Office QB157) 15.30 - 17.00
Fri 28 Sept

Please note this schedule may be subject to change

College PGR Induction - Wednesday 3rd October 2pm Windsor Auditorium in the Windsor Building

QBLT (Queens Lecture Theatre), All rooms beginning with QB are located in the Queen's Building

- SCHG Social, Cultural & Historical Geography
- GDSJG Geopolitics Development Security & Justice Group
- CQR Centre for Quaternary Research