

Postgraduate Forum Programme 2018 Wednesday 26th September 11.00 – 17.00hrs (Arranged by Laura Shipp & Alice Carter-Champion) Including Departmental Lunch (QB171)
10.30	Arrival Tea & Coffee in the Foyer Queen's Building
11.00	Session 1: QBLT - 169 11:00-11:10 Introduction – Professor Ian Candy - Director of Graduate Studies 11:10-11:30 – Katie Young, “Oh, Master, what do you want here? Master, this place is not for you” : Mobilities Inside and Outside Ghana's Postcolonial Cinema Halls 11:30-11:50 – Joanna Tindall, Lacustrine carbonate oxygen isotopes as tracers of past climate change in NW Europe . 11:50-12:10 – Jessica Fisher, How perceptions of urban nature in the tropics affect subjective wellbeing 12:10-12:30 – Rory Hopcraft, Pirates, polar bears, programs and portholes .
12.30-	Lunch (QB171)
13.30	Session 2: QBLT - 169 13:30-13:50 – Chris Francis, Investigating the spatial heterogeneity of abrupt cooling events during the Lateglacial Interstadial in Britain and Ireland using chironomids and oxygen isotopes . 13:50-14:10 – Flora Parrot, Invisible fish . 14:10-14:30 – David Arnold, Insights on Mediterranean aridity during the Late Pleistocene using mammalian tooth crown height . 14:30-14:50 – Matthew Simmons, ‘Games for change’: the politics behind digital gaming development .
14.50	Break
15.10	Session 3: QBLT - 169 15:10-15:30 – Will Jamieson, Granular Geography: Extraction, Commodification, Reclamation 15:30-15:50 – Joshua Pike, Reconstructing the last deglaciation of central Patagonia using annually-laminated sediments . 15:50-16:10 – Ed Brookes, Excavating gentrification: the contemporary geographies of Robin Hood Gardens . 16:10-16:30 – Andreas, Haggman, PhDs are not all fun and games .

	PG Reception Party – All current and new postgraduate students invited to the Happy Man
--	--