Hispanic Language, Literature and Culture

COURSE OPTIONS FOR VISITING STUDENTS

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

Spanish is truly a world language for the 21st century and it is spoken as a first language by some 332 million people across the globe. In the nationally conducted 2008 Research Assessment Exercise, Hispanic Studies at Royal Holloway was rated best in the country for its 4* 'world-leading' research publications. Studying with us means that you will enjoy the many benefits of being taught at first hand by scholars whose work is at the exciting cutting edge of research in their discipline.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Many literature courses are taught in English, with some reading/viewing assignments in English, but previous knowledge of Spanish language is an advantage.

Language courses are taught in Spanish and a specified level of Spanish language ability is required. Entry onto some language courses may be subject to a language placement test.

Term 1 = Autumn Term

Term 2 = Spring Term

The information contained in the course outlines on the following pages is correct at the time of publication but may be subject to change as part of our policy of continuous improvement and development.
