

New! PhD Studentships in Comparative Literature and Culture and/or Visual Culture

The School proposes to award in 2011 a number of MPhil/PhD studentships to outstanding applicants planning to work in the area of Comparative Literature and Culture and/or Visual Culture. The awards comprise:

- 1 College Maintenance Award, offering maintenance of £6,000 per annum for up to 3 years (full time) or 6 years (part time) which may be offset against tuition fee payments.
- 1 Crossland Scholarship offering maintenance of £5,000 per annum for up to 3 years (full time) or 6 years (part time) which may be offset against tuition fee payments.
- 3 College Research Scholarships offering a tuition fee reduction at the Home/EU rate for up to 3 years (full time) or 6 years (part time).

Applications are invited from students holding, or currently studying for, a Masters degree in an appropriate discipline. The deadline for applications is the end of April 2011.
