

Horizon 2020 - Useful Information

- Members of staff can subscribe to UKRO, click here
- For European funding opportunities and simple factsheets go to the UKRO Portal, which can be found here
- Look at previous European-funded projects on the FP7 database, which can be found here
- There is a UKRO European Advisor, specific to member institutions, who will answer any questions to do with EU funding and policy - contact your Research & Business Development team to find out more
- Researchers can apply to become a European Commission Evaluator /Expert, where specific horizon 2020 calls are evaluated. This is a great way to see what a successful proposal looks like and how the evaluation process works. To register as an expert click here.
- There is a UKRO Meeting Room in Brussels, that can be used free of charge for staff and participants of European project meetings
- There is an annual UKRO conference
- There is a free monthly publication covering developments in European research and policy - European RTD Insight