

CR2013 Reflective Paragraph Assessment Guidance

Task: Write a reflective paragraph of up to 300 words, outlining what steps you have taken to improve your work since submitting your formative essay for CR2013. This paragraph is NOT part of the summative essay word count.

You must reflect on AT LEAST ONE of the following:

- What you learnt from the experience of marking someone else's formative essay
- How you have used the peer feedback you received on your formative essay to improve your work
- How you have used the feedback you received from me on your formative essay to improve your work

Completion of the paragraph will result in an automatic 5% awarded towards your final mark for CR2013.

The reflective paragraph should be submitted on the same document, and to the same inbox on Turn It In, as your summative coursework by 12 noon on Wednesday 7th March 2018.

The students who write the 10 best reflective paragraphs will receive prizes, which will be distributed in the final revision lecture for CR2013.

What is reflective writing?

- Your response to experiences, opinions, or new information
- Your response to thoughts and feelings
- A way of exploring your learning
- An opportunity to gain self-knowledge
- A way to achieve clarity and better understanding of your own learning and skills development
- A chance to develop and reinforce your writing skills

What reflective writing is not...

- A standard university essay
- Straightforward judgement (eg. whether something is right or wrong, good or bad)
- Pure description, although there may be descriptive elements

Struggling with reflective writing? Email me
(alex.dymock@rhul.ac.uk)