PART 1

Is all the knowledge and information on the programme publicly available?

- Yes (to either)
  - Proceed to Part 2
- No (to both)
  - Is any of the knowledge or information on the programme designed for any military use?
    - Yes
      - Export license required if information/knowledge to be transferred outside of UK
      - Contact the Legal Team for further advice
    - No
      - Proceed to Part 2

Is all the knowledge and information on the programme basic scientific research (i.e., “experimental or theoretical work undertaken principally to acquire knowledge of the fundamental principles or phenomena or observable facts and not primarily directed towards a specific practical aim or objective”)?

- No (to both)
  - Proceed to Part 2
- Yes (to either)
  - Proceed to Part 2

Does the programme involve technology or know-how on any of the following: nuclear physics or engineering; viruses, pathogens or vaccines; toxic chemicals; high strength materials; high specification electronics, computers and telecommunications; automation and control systems; cryptography; lasers, optics and sonar; navigation and avionics; submersible equipment; and aerospace and space?

- Yes
  - Export license required if information/knowledge to be transferred outside of UK
  - Contact the Legal Team for further advice
- No
  - Proceed to Part 2
Part 2

The programme is unlikely to require a general export licence, however, you must now consider the students and other participants enrolled or planning to enrol.

Have you been informed, or are you aware, or suspect, that any recipients of the knowledge and information on the programme intends to use it for purposes related to weapons of mass destruction (that is, nuclear, chemical and biological weapons, and missiles capable of delivering them)?

- No
- Yes

Export licence likely required

Are any of the students (and other participants) enrolled or planning to enrol based in or nationals of any country that is subject UK sanctions, as listed on https://www.gov.uk/guidance/current-arms-embargoes-and-other-restrictions?

Will the programme involve any persons or organisations subject to US sanctions?

- Yes
- No

Contact Legal Team and Student Administration for further advice

Export licence unlikely to be required