Together with your letter of appointment, job description or task list, the provision of any collective agreements made between the Council and the recognised trade union, and appropriate College Statutes and Regulations, it forms your contract of employment with the College.

DUTIES

2. The main duties of your post are specified in your job description, or role profile and task list. These documents will be reviewed annually, and revised if necessary.

3. Your first six months' service is probationary.
4. Probation is managed in accordance with the Probationary Guidelines. Full details of these are available on the Staff Intranet
5. The probationary period may be extended or your appointment terminated if your performance during the six month period is not considered to be satisfactory.

HOURS OF WORK

6. The standard working week is 35 hours, worked over five days in seven. For most roles the standard week will be Monday to Friday. However, the pattern of working hours will be as defined in your letter of appointment or as agreed with your line manager. Some areas of the College operate flexitime schemes and you will be notified if this applies to your role.
7. Lunch and other breaks are unpaid. Breaks must be taken in accordance with the requirements of the Working Time Regulations (or prevailing legislation) and as agreed with your linemanager.

8. Sometimes work outside of the normal working hours may be required, and, if so, will be by mutual agreement. Compensation will be given as follows for hours in excess of 35:
- Additional hours on days one to five – flexi (at time), time off in lieu or pay at time and a half.
 - Additional hours on day six or College Discretionary days – flexi, time off in lieu or pay at time and a half.
 - Additional hours on day seven or Bank Holidays – flexi, time off in lieu or pay at double time.

The College requires all managers to operate within the terms of the Working Time Regulations (or prevailing legislation). All staff are entitled to proper rest breaks.

9. Within the terms of the Working Time Regulations (or prevailing legislation), you may undertake paid work for another employer outside of your College working hours. You must get your Head of Department's permission before taking additional work and must ensure that it does not interfere with your College duties.

11. The annual incremental date is 1st August for staff on an incremental scale and in post on 31st January. The date on which your first increment is due will be specified in your letter of appointment.
12. Staff automatically move up one incremental point every year until they reach the top non-contribution point of their grade. The current RHUL single pay spine is available at Staff Intranet.
13. The College will operate a fair and transparent process with clearly defined and applied criteria which will be implemented for the award of accelerated incrementation within the main scale, and the award of contribution points.
14. Salaries are payable monthly in arrears, no later than 27th of the month, by credit transfer.
15. The RHUL salary scale is determined by collective agreement with the trades unions recognised by the College. DEDUCTIONS FROM PAY

16. The College may recover any overpayment of salary or expenses incurred. Examples of these include an overpayment due to a miscalculation or managerial error or due to excess annual leave taken at the date of termination. The terms of any repayment will be agreed in consultation with the employee concerned, including the option to have the payment scheduled across a number of months and years.

HOLIDAYS

17. You are entitled to 20 working days paid annual leave a year (140 hours). Upon completion of five years continuous' service you will be awarded three additional days long service leave at the start of the fifth year of service. You are also entitled to 8 statutory public holidays and, at the College's discretion, an additional 6 days holiday, shared between Easter and Christmas, when the College is closed. All leave allowances for part time staff are adjusted (pro-rata'd) based on the percentage of full timeworked.
18. The holiday year runs from 1st August to 31st July. Outstanding leave can only be carried over from one holiday year to the next in exceptional circumstances and only with the agreement of your Head of Department.
19. All leave must be agreed in advance with your line manager in accordance with local departmental rules and within the terms of the Working Time Regulations (or prevailing legislation). Leave will only be approved according to the requirements of the service.

PENSIONS

20. You are entitled to join the occupational pension scheme for staff in Grades 1 to 5 which is the Superannuation Arrangements of the University of London (SAUL). The College operates SmartPension which is a salary sacrifice scheme. You will be automatically entered into SAUL and SmartPension unless the College considers you may not benefit from participation in SmartPension or you elect otherwise in writing. If you elect to join SAUL and opt out of SmartPension you will be required to contribute to SAUL according to the rules of the scheme, and the College will contribute an additional sum in order to finance the benefits of the scheme. If you have elected to remain in SmartPension you will sacrifice an amount from your salary equivalent to the amount of money that you currently pay into SAUL. The College will then make a contribution equal to the amount of salary you have sacrificed plus the employer pension contribution.
21. Your attention is drawn to the provisions of the Rules of SAUL and SmartPension which are available at on the pensions department webpages and at <http://www.saul.org.uk>. The provisions allow you not to join, or to leave in certain circumstances and, subject to certain conditions, to enter or re-enter the scheme.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

23. The College is required to give you one calendar month's written notice of termination of employment or notice in accordance with the statutory entitlements if these are greater.
