Self-introduction

I offer a professional, prompt and accurate service. I have worked as a teacher, deputy and head for fifteen years with considerable experience in mentoring student teachers from Reading and Roehampton Universities. I understand the particular challenges of proofreading academic papers, dissertations and PhD theses.

My experience in proofreading is extensive, and it includes academic reports, essays, non-fiction textbooks and academic websites.

I have also had two books published: 'Writing Across the Curriculum’ (Hopscotch) and 'Ashridge Explored' (National Trust).

Fees

I charge on a per-word basis, and my rates are based on those recommended by the Society for Editors and Proofreaders (SfEP).

After looking at a sample of your work, I am happy to provide a no-obligation quotation based on the length of the text, the level of intervention required and the turnaround time negotiated.
