- Permission to record lectures whilst in attendance and subject to applicable University policies¹
- Access to class material up to 24hrs in advance, where available²
- Access to material in an electronic format, where available
- Preferential seating in lectures and seminars, where appropriate to your disability. (You must notify your department.)
- Additional time to respond to oral questions in workshops, tutorials and seminars where appropriate to your disability. (You will need to notify your department)
- For students with a specific learning difficulty (dyslexia & dyspraxia) receiving green stickers that you would put on your assessed work so that markers are aware of how your SpLD affects your written work.
- For students with a specific learning difficulty exemption from being asked to read passage out loud in class if needed and requested (you will need to notify your department)
- Accessible classrooms and lecture theatres, where appropriate to your disability
- Available upon request and with some input from the Disability & Dyslexia Services, help and advice with discussing your disability with:
  1. Your host institution/ work placement abroad
  2. Your compulsory work placements
  3. Any companies involved in an optional year in Business / Industry
  4. Your department with regard to any field trip support

² The nature of the teaching on some courses sometimes makes this impossible to achieve but every effort will be made to work out with you and your department a suitable alternative.
From the Disability & Dyslexia Service (DDS):

- Organisation of exams access arrangements according to recommendations from an appropriately qualified professional or according to College standard arrangements.
- For students with a specific learning difficulty a referral for a full assessment or updated assessment if evidenced provided is deemed insufficient for DDS registration or for Disabled Students’ Allowance (please note fees may apply).
- DSA Non-medical help provision where Royal Holloway is the named supplier
- Available upon request, a pre-arrival visit to University accommodation in order to determine your accommodation needs. This is highly recommended if you are a wheelchair user due to the nature of the campus, or if you require a live in carer to be in residence. Please contact DDS as soon as possible to arrange this visit.
- The possibility of requesting a DDS recommendation for accommodation in your first year and permission to stay in halls in the second and third years where appropriate to your disability. (You need to inform DDS on an annual basis by the end of January if you wish to continue living in halls)
