

Update on Active Lifestyle and Sport

The ideas of the RH100 panellists are being used to

- x Help inform activity opportunities for next year. This will take into account 'ideas to improve the variety of sessions offered
- x Test out new daytime sessions this term. There will be more free turn up sessions on Founders Square and students can book, turn up and choose what activity they want to play.
- x Help change our membership and pricing structure for 2023/24 taking into account 'ideas about more flexible options. We will be introducing a new online system to make joining easier, allow flexible payments for membership and simply easy booking of classes and activities via an app.
