

Community Action Project

Schools Workshop Assistant

Community Action Partner

British Red Cross

Aim: To deliver interactive workshops and assemblies about humanitarian education and the work of the Red Cross to young people in primary and secondary schools and colleges.

Role: To facilitate workshops for groups of young people using a range of fun learning and discussion based activities.

- To assist with the planning of workshops and preparation of resources.
- To be involved in the evaluations of projects based on personal ideas and experiences.
- To assist with the promotion of the School Speaker Network programme on an occasional basis.
- To volunteer within the British Red Cross Health and Safety, Child Protection, Equal Opportunities and other similar policies as appropriate.
- To uphold the Fundamental Principles of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement at all times whilst representing the British Red Cross.

Training: Volunteers will receive training in:

- The Red Cross Movement and its Fundamental Principles
- Humanitarian events and issues
- How Humanitarian Education links into Education for Citizenship
- Presentation Skills
- Facilitation Skills

They provide:

- Ongoing support from the Humanitarian Education Coordinator.
- A toolkit and resources for the talks.

Location: Various schools and colleges across London.

Times: Minimum of 4 hours a month during school term time (weekdays 9am - 4pm). Occasional evening training and development sessions.

CRB: Volunteers require a CRB disclosure via the Community Action office.

Other: Reimbursement of all volunteer costs.

Application: All volunteers must be registered as Community Action volunteers. To do so, visit <http://www.rhul.ac.uk/services/volunteering/register.html>

Royal Holloway
University of London

